Primaflora Bracelet

Description

The vision for this bracelet came from a vintage necklace I found on the internet one day. While I made a bracelet, it can certainly be turned into a necklace again. A bezeled chaton for the center, 2mm crystals line the center of the petals, and a double loop closure are some of the details that make this piece so special. Stitches used: Diagonal Peyote, Netting, Right-Angle-Weave
