Alternate Angles Bracelet

Description

Cubic right-angle-weave doesn't have to be scary! In this class students will learn an easy way to make a cubic right-angle-weave strip and then change it up by changing directions and colors.

Usually when CRAW is taught, it is shown as a single strip of cubes – by learning how to create a solid block of CRAW, you open your beadweaving to new possibilities!

The instructions for a companion necklace piece to this bracelet, will be included in the class materials.

Level

Intermediate – should be comfortable with flat right-angle-weave

Length

One day

Kit Fee

$30
